Make an Off-Beat, Washable Tablecloth

Instead of a traditional round cloth for a round table, why not make it in a hexagonal or octagonal shape? Here's how.

First, measure off a pie-shaped section of the table. To do this, bisect the table with lengths of cord, three or four times depending on the size of the table and the width of the fabric. Lightly tape each end of the marking cords to the table and be sure, when measuring, that the distance between each cord is the same.

Then make a paper pattern of one section continuing in a straight line from the apex as far down as the cloth should drape over the table edge. Place right sides of fabric together and cut around the triangle pattern with the center of the base and the apex lined up on the straight of the fabric. Be sure to leave a seam allowance. Double your fabric and cut the pattern three times for hexagonal cloth and four times for an octagonal. Stitch the pieces together and hem the edge.

Use the same idea for an umbrella table. Put a zipper or gripper fastners on one seam of the cloth: cut and hem a hole at the apex to go around the umbrella pole.

Good choices for this at-home project are terry cloth or permanent press cottons or blends. Matching napkins can be fashioned from leftover material. It's a nice finishing touch, especially when the only upkeep is machine wash, tumble dry.

Jr. Woman's Club Has Installation Of Officers Banquet

The Junior Woman's Club of Appomattox, Virginia, Inc. held their Installation Banquet Tuesday evening, May 19, at Parkway Restaurant.

Special guests were Mrs. W. E. Jamerson, Past-President and Charter member of the JWCV and Mrs. H. W. Babcock, President of the Appomattox Woman's Club. Mrs. Jamerson was the guest speaker and installing officer for the evening. She told the members and guests that "It is your responsibility as young women to take an interest and to work as your constitution states (to promote the cultural, social and civic welfare of their community). This will take sacrifice, hard work and a great deal of cooperation and togetherness. It has been said there are three types of people. Those who make things happen; those who watch things happen; and those who wonder what happened. I challenge you as newly officers and club members to be among those who make things happen."

Newly elected officers for the 1975-76 club year are: Mrs. James Nolen, President; Mrs. Charles Perkins, First Vice President; Mrs. John Booker, Second Vice President; Mrs. Monte Mays, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Frances Avery, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Omar (Billy) Thompson, Treasurer; Mrs. John Wilson, Historian, who was unable to attend. Mrs. Crawford Davidson, a Charter member, will be the Club's advisor for the 75-76 year.

Mrs. James A. Nolen, newly elected president, was awarded Outstanding Club Woman for 1974-75. She was also elected to serve as Vice-President of Junction District President's Counsel for 1975-76.

Mrs. Richard Robinson announced that the club had won two Outstanding Achievement Awards: 1st place in Bicentennial and American Heritage and 3rd place in crafts, and two Certificate of Merit awards 100% Achievement on the Virginia Junior Point System and 100% Achievement on the Virginia Junior Point System and 100% Subscription to the Virginia CLUB WOMAN magazine.
